Anvil Finalises the Acquisition of an Additional 10% in the Kinsevere-Nambulwa Copper-Cobalt Joint Venture, Democratic Republic of Congo

Montréal - Anvil Mining Limited (TSX, ASX: AVM) (“Anvil”) is pleased to announce that it has completed its previously announced acquisition of an additional 10% interest in the mining rights for the Kinsevere-Nambulwa copper-cobalt deposits located 30 km north-north-east of Lubumbashi, the provincial capital of the Katanga Province of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (“DRC”). Anvil has acquired this interest from the Mining Company Katanga s.p.r.l, a private DRC company that is Anvil’s joint venture partner in the Kinsevere-Nambulwa project.

The total amount paid by Anvil for this additional interest was $10 million in cash and $4 million in common shares, for a total payment of $14 million. An aggregate of 602,410 common shares of Anvil have been issued at a price of US$6.64 per share (equivalent to C$7.53). Completion of this acquisition takes Anvil’s interest in the joint venture from 70% to 80%.

Anvil Mining Limited is an unhedged copper and silver producer whose shares are listed for trading on the Toronto Stock Exchange and the Australian Stock Exchange under the symbol AVM. It owns and operates the Dikulushi copper-silver mine and the Kulu copper tailings operation in Katanga Province of the Democratic Republic of the Congo. In addition, the Company is currently developing the Kinsevere project as the Company’s third mine in the DRC.

 One common share on the Canadian share register is equivalent to 10 CDIs (CHESS Depositary Instruments) on the Australian share register.*
